Learn a new language this year!

 The library will be using a Library Science and Technology grant to purchase access to online language learning software this year. Please take a week or so to try out the following resources and let us know which one you want the library to purchase.

 Please contact the reference desk, 981-2923, for login information for the Pronunciator trial.